20th November, 2006.

P.C. :

By the order dated 2nd May, 2006 a bank guarantee of Rs.51 lacs was to be furnished within a period of six weeks. The six weeks were to expire on 14th June, 2006. On 12th June, 2006 an oral application was made for extension of time when the Petitioners were directed to make an appropriate written application. Consequently the Notice of Motion has been taken out. The Motion is opposed by the Learned AGP. In paragraph 4 of the affidavit in support of the Motion, it has been stated that on 16th May, 2006 a draft of the Bank Guarantee was submitted to the office of the Prothonotary & Senior Master for approval. In the circumstances, time to furnish the Bank Guarantee is extended till 15th December, 2006. No further extension will be granted. The Notice of Motion is accordingly disposed of.
